2ND ANNUAL "OLDE AMERICAN THYME PRIMITIVE, ANTIQUE & VINTAGE SHOW

It's that time again, and on Saturday, Sept. 28, Ardmore, Ala., will celebrate its Second Annual "Olde American Thyme" Primitive, Antique and Vintage Show. The show will be held at the Ardmore High School Gym at 30285 Ardmore Avenue. To secure a booth for primitive, antique and vintage selections, call 540-226-1267. There will be numerous booths including beautiful painted furniture, antique and vintage furniture, primitive pieces, tools, unique finds, smalls and there's always the unusual. Make it a family event and take everyone out to enjoy a day in Ardmore. There will be a bake sale and concessions, and lots of cold water and drinks to quench the thirst. All proceeds, after advertising and costs, will benefit the Ardmore High School Band. Be sure to call Donna at 540-226-1267 with questions and booth space.

Southern Junkers Show Coming to Memphis Fairgrounds

Get ready Memphis! The Southern Junkers Vintage Market is bringing it back to Midtown September 20th and 21st, and it's bigger and better than ever before! Not only are we bringing you the vintage and antiques, we are bringing back the nostalgia we all love and miss from the Memphis Fairgrounds!

"Remember When"? I do! Such fond memories of getting out of school a whole full day to go to the Mid South Fair at the Memphis Fairgrounds! Riding the Zippin Pippin! All those great concerts we all saw at the Coliseum! We want to bring back those memories of going out to the Fairgrounds and hunting those vintage and antique finds. Remember those days! Corn dogs and funnel cakes. Hmmmm my mouth is watering just thinking about it! Throw in a little live music, and we've got a great two days of shopping, eating, meeting up with friends and making new memories! You may even see ELVIS!

Real Good Dog Rescue will be on site, and a portion of the proceeds will be donated to them through online ticketing. Open Friday 9 to 6 with $5 admission and Saturday 9 to 5, $5 admission, with a weekend pass only $8; children 13 and under free. Free parking and the venue is air conditioned and on concrete floors. For info email ruthsnap@yahoo.com or call 901-412-5485.

Our sunflower field was so beautiful this summer at the farm, and I am so fortunate to have my own photographer-in-residence at the farm, Megan Lashlae Mueller! We had a fun photoshoot early one morning, and I love how my photos turned out! This was my first ever photo shoot session! Check out her Facebook page "Soul Shoots Photography" to see about setting up a session for yourself. She also co-posts on our farm's Busy Bee Blueberry Patch page. Jamie Dudiak, Publisher

Clarksville, TN

RECIPE

Parsley 'N Parmesan Baked Chicken

- 1/4 c. bottled Italian salad dressing
- 3-3 1/2 lbs. chicken breasts
- 1 slightly beaten egg
- 2 T. water
- 1/2 c. grated Parmesan cheese
- 1/3 c. fine dry bread crumbs
- 2 T. dried parsley
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. paprika
- 1/8 tsp. pepper

Preheat oven to 350°. Pour salad dressing into dish. Add chicken, turning to coat on all sides. Cover and refrigerate 4 hours, occasionally tilting dish and spooning dressing over chicken. Drain chicken, reserving dressing. Combine egg and water. In plastic bag, combine cheese, crumbs, parsley, salt, paprika and pepper. Dip chicken in egg mixture, then shake, a few pieces at a time, in crumbs mixture to coat. Place chicken in 9x12 baking dish. Spoon remaining dressing over chicken pieces. Bake 45-50 minutes or until tender and brown.

RECIPE: Cheddar Cheese Grits with Italian Sausage

- 4 cups chicken stock • 1 cup stone ground grits not quick or instant
- 1/4 cup butter • 1/4 cup shredded Parmesan
- 1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
- 1 Tablespoon olive oil • 1 pound sweet Italian sausages
- 2 Tablespoons minced onion
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 cups chopped fresh tomatoes about 1 1/2 lbs
- 1/2 teaspoon kosher salt • 1/2 teaspoon Pepper
- 2 Tablespoons chopped Basil optional

In a medium saucepan, bring the chicken stock to a boil. Add grits in a slow stream, whisking the whole time.

Reduce heat, cover and simmer stirring frequently until the grits are very thick, about 20 minutes.

Remove from heat and stir in butter and cheese, season to taste.

Meanwhile, in a medium skillet, heat the oil over MEDIUM LOW HEAT and add sausages. Turn occasionally and cook until nearly done, about 10 minutes. Add onion and garlic to the pan and cook for 2 minutes.

Then add tomatoes to the pan, season with salt and pepper and cook until sausage is done (Internal temperature of 165 degrees) and tomatoes are tender, about 5 -10 minutes. Serve grits topped with sausages and tomatoes. Sprinkle with basil and serve.

HIGH COTTON

High Cotton in Dickson, Tenn., is full of gifts, antiques, home decor and more, like the TreeBee's Beekeeper wraps. These are reusable beeswax permeated fabric sheets that wrap around bowls or food to preserve it as you would use plastic wrap. But they're semi-permeable and let in just enough oxygen to create an environment which keeps your fruits and vegetables much longer than plastic wrap or bags.

Celebrate Oktoberfest in Loretto

The city of Loretto, Tenn., celebrates Oktoberfest each year. The first Oktoberfest goes back to a horse race in Germany in the year 1810. The occasion was the marriage of Crown Prince Ludwig to Princess Therese of Sachsen-Hildburg-hausen. Around 40,000 people attended the event in Munich, Germany.

This celebration soon developed into a harvest festival, and as time passed, it became more and more extravagant. Beer was first served in 1818; shows and rides appeared at the same time. Since then, the Munich Oktoberfest has become an international event with millions of visitors attending. Germans in other countries have held on to the tradition of celebrating Oktoberfest in whatever country of the world they find themselves. The community of Loretto has a strong German heritage. Around 1870, a Catholic priest, Father Heuser with the Cincinnati Homestead Association, organized two mission parishes in Loretto and St. Joseph, Tenn. He brought with him members of the Precious Blood Missionary Order of Nuns and Brothers, who assisted in establishing the parish building that served as both church and school. Before this, Loretto bore the name of Glenrock. The Catholic settlers changed the name to Loretto in 1871 in honor of Our Lady of Loretto, invoking her to protect and preserve Loretto from disaster. Many Catholic immigrants came to this area after the church communities were built. Some of the first German immigrants were the Sandshultes, Poppies, Dishlers, Hunts, Hessles, Bolanders, Vonbimels and Schemers, who were all hardworking craftsmen.

Loretto Lift-Up, Inc has sponsored Oktoberfest in Loretto since 1989 as a way to celebrate that German heritage, the harvest, and their community spirit and pride. They celebrate with food, crafts, pumpkins, community gatherings and more food! You don't have to be German to enjoy the festivities. Everyone is welcome!

What a rare, fantastic decorator item! Check out this vintage chemistry set by Scientific Glass Apparatus Co. available at Main Street Trading Co. in Loretto, Tenn. It's in a solid oak case with official labels and measures 28"X17"x6.5"

REAL ANTIQUES IN ALL THEIR GLORY

By Davorka Whiteside

What is a real antique piece? Where did it come from? Why do we still like it and want it? What does it mean to us?

A - Attic was the place we could find some treasure that still has a soul, a deeper meaning and connection with the past because it came from grandmother's home.

N - Neat, natural wood, cherry, walnut, oak, solid piece, hand-made, beautifully carved. Yes, these are characteristics of real antique pieces of furniture.

es of furniture.

T - Temptation is always present! Maybe we could find a better way to arrange furniture at home incorporating a new piece with what we already have, putting it in a very prominent spot so that everybody can enjoy it.

I - Inspiration! Truly it is vital. Decades and decades ago woodcrafters needed to be impressed and inspired for a good start. Their inspiration inspires us to make improvements in our small corner of the world.

Q - Quality is superior. In Antiques, Art & Collectibles Mall, how many times we would make the same comment: "Real antique equals stunning quality still today!"

U - Uniqueness, design, shape, color, style, grain of the wood lead us to the same conclusion - it is a unique antique piece of furniture.

E - Essence of what beauty is! Just one look at the gorgeous antique piece will leave us speechless with widely open eyes and a smile on our faces, regardless which generation we belong to.

S - Special place in our home, special place in our heart for this special piece of furniture that you can find in the mall.

So come to Antiques, Art, and Collectibles Mall in Shelbyville, Tenn., because you, dear customers, are so special to us! If you want unique, go antique!

RECIPE: Braised Chicken Thighs with Spinach and White Beans

8 chicken thighs • 1 medium onion chopped
 2 garlic cloves smashed • 3 T olive oil • 1 T butter
 1/2 cup white wine or chicken broth
 1 t. each rosemary and thyme
 2 15 oz cans white beans or 1/2lb dry white beans, cooked
 1 10 oz package frozen chopped spinach
 salt and pepper

In a large dutch oven heat olive oil and butter over medium high heat. Sprinkle chicken thighs with salt and pepper and place skin side down in hot dutch oven. Brown on both sides and remove from the pot, set aside. Add onion and garlic to the pan and cook until softened, about 5 minutes. Deglaze the pot with the wine, making sure to scrap all of the brown bits off the bottom ( they are delicious!) Add in the beans, spinach, rosemary and thyme, salt and pepper to the pot. Nestle the chicken thighs skin side up in to the pan and add enough water ( or chicken broth) to cover 2/3 of the chicken. Bring to a simmer, cover and reduce heat. Cook until the chicken pieces are cooked through, about 30 minutes. Serve and enjoy!

CLEVELAND'S OLD WOOLEN MILL BEING TRANSFORMED INTO GRIT & GRACE MARKET

By Maxine B Jones, Ocoee, Tennessee

Grit & Grace Market, opening soon inside the Historic Old Woolen Mill in Downtown Cleveland, Tenn., will bring a premier vintage and artisan shopping experience to the area. With approximately 10,000 square feet of space, they have room for close to 70 vendors. Owners Brandon and Melody Miles invite you to visit and see for yourself why this store will be a premier shopping experience. Housed in the Old Woolen Mill, Brandon and Melody have left this building as close to its original structure as possible, with steel beams and posts, wood ceilings, and tons of exposed brick. It still has an industrial appeal, yet will be warmed by all the unique treasures you'll find inside.

The Miles are looking for vendors with antiques, vintage, unique handmade items, repurposed and up-cycled selections, vendors with baked goodies, industrial finds, as well as French Country selections. If you are one of these talented artisans or vendors, you need to call Brandon and Melody and secure your space.

Brandon and Melody won't be the only Miles at Grit & Grace. Their five children, ages 16 to four months, will be there and assisting their parents in this unique family business. Family time is very important to them, and they are looking forward to spending time together as they work stocking, assisting customers, and learning what your favorite artisan selection will be.

Grit & Grace Market is on FaceBook, so be watching when they announce their big date for their Grand Opening Open House, hopefully by first of November. Grit & Grace is located at 645 Church St., SE, and their entrance is next to the huge smoke stack attached to the Old Woolen Mill. You'll be fascinated by its southern charm and listen, you might even hear a story or two from those nostalgic brick walls. The phone to secure your booth space is 423-716-5283.

CLEVELAND CELEBRATES OLDEST HARDWARE STORE

By Maxine B Jones, Ocoee, Tennessee

Beaty Feed & Hardware first opened for business in 1936 as a feed store. The owners, Virgil and his wife Willie Beaty, started out selling feed in 100 pound bags. They first had to walk down to the railroad tracks and unload bulk feed, take it to the store, and put it into the 100-pound bags. In 1939, Beaty's moved their feed store to 650 Wildwood Avenue in Cleveland, and it remains at this location still today.

The first hardware items were added in 1952, when Willie would buy one hammer, sell it, then buy two more, and that's how they began to build the hardware business. They also began selling electric water pumps in the '50s. As the demographics in the area changed from a totally agricultural economy to a manufacturing based economy, Beaty Feed and Hardware changed from a one-room feed store to a full line hardware store. Even today, lawn & garden, as well as specialty feeds, are an important part of the business. In 1968, their son, Clayton Beaty and his wife Judy, took ownership of the store. Clayton built up the store even more with gardening items like mulch, fertilizers and plants, as well as hardware items, and the store continued to build its name throughout Cleveland and the surrounding areas.

of the items that sold good for the store; feed now sold in 50-pound bags, seedlings and plants are a must for spring seasonal sales, and they continue to add other items. You'll find pocket knives, such as Case brand, children's wagons, and other seasonal items like sleds and snow shovels, gloves, and lots of other winter items.

On April 1, 2012, the name changed to Beaty Hardware. In August 2017, the Collector's Corner was added; this is an antique and collectable section in the old front section of the store. This section is filled with a variety of gifts, collectibles, farm-style decor and vintage treasures.

On Saturday, Oct. 5, Beaty's is having an 80th Anniversary Celebration. There will be special sales for this day only, and their antique and collectable vendors will be stocking up their booths with new items. Also, Kenneth Malone, store owner, has a special treat planned! He is making homemade ice cream in their vintage five-gallon hand crank ice cream freezer. Kenneth and Donna said, "Everyone is invited, so come on down, Saturday, Oct. 5th, and help Kenneth crank the ice cream freezer!"

On June 1, 2005, Kenneth and Donna Malone took ownership and changed the name to Beaty True Value Hardware. Kenneth had worked for Beaty's Feed & Hardware Store for 31 years, and it was already his second home. Donna said she could remember her Papaw Miller taking her to buy different color baby chicks when she was a little girl in the '60s, and it just seemed natural that they continue at Beaty's. They kept most

ONCE AGAIN VINTAGE TREASURES & ANTIQUES OPENS IN CLEVELAND

By Maxine B Jones, Ocoee, Tennessee

Cleveland, Tenn., is serious about new store openings this year, with another store recently opened. Once Again Vintage Treasures & Antiques, located at 1701 South Lee Hwy/Hwy 11North, in the Life Plaza is the newest addition. Owners April and Jeff Brewer are avid pickers and collectors of antiques, including primitive, vintage and antique. Their store opened in April this year, and their vendor spaces filled up quickly. They set up their vendor spaces with walls made from pallets, making it well organized and easy to browse and shop. April said they have the most compliments on how they staged and set up their walls, and how well the lighting shows up every space, as well as how clean the store stays and that it always has a fresh clean fragrance when entering. She said an organized and well-kept store helps customers to see everything in the booths, and they enjoy coming back again and again.

Once Again Vintage Treasures & Antiques has already had customers from numerous cities and states. Some have traveled from Atlanta, Nashville, Cookeville, Kentucky, Tennessee, South Carolina and even California. They have vendors from all over the South. One lives in Gatlinburg, and his particular vendor's space has a lot of Victorian period items - dolls, Tiffany lamp, mirrors, and smalls, to name a few. He keeps it filled, and what he's bringing in goes out the door about as quick as it comes in. One vendor has a vintage loom; she makes rugs to sell. Another vendor makes a lot of furniture from recycled lumber; some of his pieces are painted. He makes farm tables and hutches which sell very fast. There's multiple wrought iron beds of different sizes, ladder back chairs, and occasionally a love seat or Victorian sofa shows up in a booth; you need to check this store often.

April said they have a couple of vendors that carry jewelry; some may be fine, other pieces are vintage and antique selections. They carry a good variety of other items in their booths too. Men, there's a man cave with tools, fishing equipment, signage, and other items for you to enjoy the hunt as well. There's just no prediction of what you might find at this store any given day. The prices are great, and that's one reason so many people return again. They have numerous store owners and vendors who shop with them as well.

The Brewers enjoy their picking outings and both look for their favorite collectibles and loved antiques while picking for their store. April is "nuts" over rolling pins. She told me she has over a hundred, and if she walks into an estate sale or market and there's a dozen rolling pins, she immediately knows exactly which one she has or does not have! She loves kitchen ware, including primitive, vintage and antique pieces. She likes '50s and '60s items like Hoosiers, vintage tables, red-checked tablecloths, painted handled tools and all the vintage kitchen finds you can still use or decorate with, especially rolling pins! She has an eye for the glassware, particularly Depression glass in all colors, and she looks for glassware, dinnerware, and serving pieces that can be used for wedding receptions, parties, etc.

Jeff loves trains of all sizes, and kinds, the older, the more cars and accessories, the better. April teases him about selling them, but laughing, says, "Love my bag boy", so Jeff will keep looking for trains. The Brewers help each other find their favorites and both pick for the store. April told me, "I was raised by my grandparents, so I lived amongst the antiques; I thought it was the coolest things ever! I dreamed of having a store full of all those things and being able to sell them." April loves knowing someone takes a part of what they found and loved home with them.

The Brewers have passed their addiction on to their daughters, Amanda and Kassie. Amanda collects barber shop collectibles, including straight and safety razors, barber polls, leather straps, shaving mugs, brushes, signs and more. She decorates with it, and loves the hunt for her favorites. Their daughter Kassie loves to create her own "art" by repurposing and revamping. She loves to collect primitive and antiques, especially items that she can go all out to decorate with during Thanksgiving and Christmas. Her decor becomes an art within itself.

April told us that she loves the store, and it just makes her happy seeing how excited customers get when they come in and find something they love, and have been trying to find. Their grandson, seven-year-old Hayden, is already getting the hang of selling and finding his own niche for collecting, and she hopes to continue growing their shop and one day leave it to him. In the mean time, the Brewers invite you to visit and shop with Once Again Vintage Treasures & Antiques. Let them know you heard about them in the Busy Bee Trader.

ANNUAL FARM TO TABLE DINNER IN DAYTON, TENNESSEE

MainStreet Dayton is proud to announce The Fourth Annual Farm to Table Dinner will be Saturday, September 14, 2019 in downtown Dayton!

MainStreet Dayton is excited to bring this fantastic event to our community once again this year! We are honored by the support that we've been shown in previous years and we hope to make this year another record breaking success!

Once again we will be partnering with local farms to bring the best fare there is to offer! Gabriel and Eva Camp, owners of Screen Door Kitchen, are heading up the menu this year, so we are guaranteed a delightful meal! Some of the farms we are proud to feature this year include, Southern Valley Farms, Cornett Family Farms, Landing View Farms, Jackson Farms, and Raburn Acres; just to name a few. Each of these farms have participated with us in past years and we are so happy to have them join us again this year for such a great event!

This year's dinner will again take place on Market Street directly in front of the Historic Rhea County Courthouse. Hors D'oeuvres will be served at 5:00 pm, and dinner at 6:00 pm. Don't miss out on the chance to win door prizes from local businesses, or cash from the 50/50 raffle! Previous 50/50 winners have gone home with over $200!

Another continuation of last year, is our partnership with The Rhea County Community Center (RC3). "The Rhea County Community Center seeks "to build a healthy community with Christ as cornerstone" by offering wellness, sports, and healthy programs for all ages and abilities in Rhea County and beyond. Our annual Strong Kids and Families Campaign provides funds to provide financial assistance for memberships and programs so that all may have access to a healthier and happier life," said Cindy Horton, RC3 director. Proceeds from the dinner will be split between RC3 and MainStreet Dayton. "This is a great way to connect with others in the community over a great dinner, as well as give back through RC3 scholarships and MainStreet Dayton downtown projects," said Rachel Marshall, MainStreet Dayton Executive Director.

After dinner and dessert, there will be live music on the Courthouse lawn featuring Brandon Maddox! Maddox is a singer/songwriter from Nashville who has been featured on TV and Radio!

Tickets will be available at the Rhea County Welcome Center, The Herald-News, and RC3. For more information please visit our website at www.mainstreetdayton.org or call 423.775.9847.
